The wearer's AC and unarmed damage is treated as a monk of five levels higher. If donned by a character with the Stunning Fist feat, the belt lets her make one additional stunning attack per day. If the character is not a monk, she gains the AC and unarmed damage of a 5th-level monk. This AC bonus functions just like the monk's AC bonus. Moderate

This small black sphere appears to be a lusterless pearl. You can throw it up to 60 feet with no range penalties. Upon sharp impact, the bead explodes, sending forth a burst that deals 5d6 points of force damage to all creatures within a 10-foot radius. It functions like an Ofluke's resilient sphere spell (Reflex DC 16 negates) with a radius of 10 feet and a duration of 10 minutes. A globe of shimmering force encloses a creature, provided the latter is small enough to fit within the diameter of the sphere. The sphere contains its subject for the spell's duration. The sphere is not subject to damage of any sort except from a rod of cancellation, a rod of negation, disintegrate, or a targeted dispel magic spell. These effects destroy the sphere without harm to the subject. Nothing can pass through the sphere, inside or out, though the subject can breathe normally. The subject may struggle, but the globe cannot be physically moved either by people outside it or by the struggles of those within the explosion completely consumes the bead, making this a one-use item. Moderate evocation; CL 10th

5	pecial	Qualities

AC Bonus (Ex) [Mv]

A Battle Dancer is highly trained at dodging blows, and she has a sixth sense that lets her avoid even unanticipated attacks. When unarmored and unencumbered, the Battle Dancer adds her Charisma bonus (if any) to her AC. In addition, a Battle Dancer gains a +1 bonus to AC at 5th level. This bonus increases by 1 for every five BattleDancer levels thereafter (+2 at 10th, +3 at 15th, and +4 at 20th level). These bonuses to AC apply even against touch attacks or when the BattleDancer is flat-footed. She loses these bonuses when she is immobilized or helpless, when she wears any armor, when she carries a shield, or when she carries a medium or heavy load. BONUS +13, LEVEL = 5, STAT = 12

Lore (Ex) [UA]

Thanks to long hours of study, a cloistered cleric has a wide range of stray knowledge. He may make a special Lore check with a bonus equal to his level + his Intelligence modifier (+5) to see whether he knows some relevant information about local notable people, legendary items, or noteworthy places. (If the Cloistered Cleric has 5 or more ranks in Knowledge (History), he gains a +2 bonus on this check.) A successful Lore check will not reveal the powers of a magic item but may give a hint as to its general function. A Cloistered Cleric may not take 10 or take 20 on this check; this sort of knowledge is essentially random. The DM can determine the Difficulty Class of the check by referring to the table above.

Low-Light Vision (Ex)

You can see 2x as far as humans in low illumination. Characters with low-light vision have eyes that are so sensitive to light that they can see twice as far as normal in dim light. Low-light vision is color vision. A spellcaster with low-light vision can read a scroll as long as even the tiniest candle flame is next to her as a source of light. Characters with low-light vision can see outdoors on a moonlit night as well as they can during the day. [XPH]

special powers or vulnerabilities, you gain a +5 competence bonus on the check. [CS] Swift Concentration

You can maintain concentration on a spell or similar effect as a swift action.

Spells [PH]

A cleric casts divine spells. A cleric also gets one domain spell of each spell level he can cast, starting at 1st level. When a cleric prepares a spell in a domain spell slot, it must come from one of his two domains. Clerics do not acquire their spells from books or scrolls, nor do they prepare them through study. Instead, they meditate or pray for their spells, receiving them through their own strength of faith or as divine inspiration. Each cleric must choose a time at which he must spend 1 hour each day in quiet contemplation or supplication to regain his daily allotment of spells, and decide which ones to choose for that day. Time spent resting has no effect on whether a cleric can prepare spells.

Spontaneous Casting

You can channel stored spell energy into healing spells that you did not prepare ahead of time. You can "lose" any prepared spell that is not a domain spell in order to cast any cure spell of the same spell level or lower (a cure spell is any spell with "cure" in its name).

Turn or Rebuke Undead (Su)

[PH]

Any cleric, regardless of alignment, has the power to affect undead creatures (such as skeletons, zombies, ghosts, and vampires) by channeling the power of his faith through his holy (or unholy) symbol (see Turn or Rebuke Undead, page 159). A good cleric can turn or destroy undead creatures. An evil cleric instead rebukes or commands such creatures., forcing them to cower in awe of his power. A cleric may attempt to turn undead a number of times per day equal to 3 + his Charisma modifier. A cleric with 5 or more ranks in Knowledge (religion) gets a +2 bonus on turning checks against undead.

Vernal Touch (Su)

At will, spend a standard action and touch a creature. You remove all dazed, nauseated, fatigued, and exhausted conditions from the target. For indead, this touch attack functions as Turn Undead used by a cleric two levels higher than your total level, affecting only the touched undead.

Feats

Divine Metamagic (Persistent Spell, Quicken Spell, Repeat Spell)

[CD]

You can channel energy into some of your divine spells to make them more powerful.

When you take this feat, choose a metamagic feat that you know. This feat applies only to that metamagic feat. As a free action, you can take the energy from turning or rebuking undead and use it to apply a metamagic feat to divine spells that you know. You must spend one turn or rebuke attempt, plus an additional attempt for each level increase in the metamagic feat you're using. For example, Jozan the cleric could sacrifice three turn attempts to empower a holy smite he's casting. Because you're using positive or negative energy to augment your spells, the spell slot for the spell doesn't change.

Extend Spell [PH]

You can cast spells that last longer than normal.

An extended spell lasts twice as long as normal. A spell with a duration of concentration, instantaneous, or permanent is not affected by this feat. An extended spell uses up a spell slot one level higher than the spell's actual level.

Persistent Spell

You can make a spell last all day. A persistent spell has a duration of 24 hours. The persistent spell must have a personal range or fixed range (for example, comprehend languages or detect magic). Spells of instantaneous duration cannot be affected by this feat, nor can spells whose effects are discharged. You need not concentrate on spells such as detect magic or detect thoughts to be aware of the mere presence or absence of the thing detected, but you must still concentrate to gain additional information as normal. Concentration on such a spell is a standard action that does not provoke an attack of opportunity. A persistent spell uses up a spell slot six levels higher than the spell's actual level.

Quicken Spell [PH]

You can cast a spell with a moment's thought.

Casting a quickened spell is an swift action. You can perform another action, even casting another spell, in the same round as you cast a quickened spell. You may cast only one quickened spell per round. A spell whose casting time is more than 1 full round action cannot be quickened. A quickened spell uses up a spell slot four levels higher than the spell's actual level. Casting a quickened spell doesn't provoke an attack of opportunity. Special: This feat can't be applied to any spell cast spontaneously (including sorcerer spells, bard spells, and cleric or druid spells cast spontaneously), since applying a metamagic feat to a spontaneously cast spell automatically increases the casting time to a full-round action.

Repeat Spell

You can cast a spell that repeats on the following round.

A repeated spell is automatically cast again at the beginning of your turn in the following round. No matter where you might have moved in the previous round, the second spell originates from the same location and affects the same area as the original spell. If the original spell designates a ranged target, the repeated spell affects the same target if it is within 30 feet of its original position; otherwise, the second spell fails. Touch range spells cannot be affected by this feat.

Trickery Devotion

You project a simulacrum of yourself that can perform limited tasks.

Once per day as a standard action, you can create an exact duplicate of yourself up to 30 feet away. You can control this simulacrum's movements as a free action. The image becomes more "real" as you advance in level. This ability is usable up to a maximum of 1 minute per level each day. The simulacrum combines the characteristics of the silent image (PH 279) and unseen servant (PH 297) spells. Its hit points are equal to 6 + your character level. It ignores terrain effects and moves like an unseen servant, making no noise in the process, though it makes normal motions while traveling. If you have a fly speed, the image appears to fly when not in contact with the ground; otherwise, it walks on open air. You can do anything with this image that you could do with the unseen servant spell and are under the same limitations. When you attain 5th level, you gain more control over the simulacrum. At this point, it behaves more like a major image spell (PH 252), though it still performs actions like an unseen servant. As long as the simulacrum remains within 5 feet of your position (and you can direct it to do so as a free action), you can perform a Bluff check in combat as a swift action. You gain a +4 bonus on this check, which is opposed by your opponents' Sense Motive checks. If you are successful, your foes believe the image is you (and vice versa) for 1 round. Once you reach 10th level, you can spend a swift action to transfer your perceptions to the simulacrum and perceive the world from its point of view rather than your own. You can move the image as if it were your own body, using the simulacrum's movement characteristics (ignoring terrain, "flying, " and the like). You can also perform any skill and ability checks using the simulacrum, as long as they do not require a Strength score higher than 2. The image has phantom versions of all your equipment (such as lockpicks), but any such items that lose direct contact with it immediately dissipate. When you attain 15th level, the image can become more "real" at your command. It gains a Strength score equal to onehalf your own and can perform combat actions using phantom versions of your gear. Any of these items that lose contact with the image dissipate immediately. Thus, the image can wield a sword, but if it shoots a bow, the arrow disappears as soon as it is fired. Equipment that extends more than 5 feet from the image (such as a length of rope) also disappears beyond that distance. In addition, you can now cast spells originating from the image as if with a project image spell (PH 265), with one exception. If you lose line of effect to the image, the effect does not end; you just can't cast spells originating from the image until you gain line of effect again.

Special: You can select this feat multiple times, gaining one additional daily use each time you take it.

Special: If you have the ability to turn or rebuke undead, you gain one additional daily use of this feat for each three daily turn or rebuke uses you expend.

□□□□□ Omen of Peril (CL:10)

V,F] TARGET: You, EFFECT: Based on an assessment of your immediate surroundings and chosen path of travel, you receive one of three visions that reflect the next hour's journey: safety, peril, or great danger. The base chance for receiving an accurate reply is 70% +1% per caster level, to a maximum of 90%; the DM makes the roll secretly. If the omen of peril is successful, you get one of three visions, which lasts just a second or two. . Safety: You aren't in any immediate danger. If you continue on your present course [or remain where you are if you have been stationary for some time before casting the spell], you will face no significant monsters, traps, or other challenges for the next hour or so. . Peril: You will face challenges typical of an adventure: challenging but not overwhelming monsters, dangerous traps, and other hazards for the next hour or so. . Great Danger: Your very life is at grave risk. You will likely face powerful NPCs or deadly traps in the next hour. If the roll fails, you get one of the two incorrect results, determined randomly by the DM, and you don't necessarily know that you failed because the DM rolls secretly. Choosing which vision is "correct" takes some educated guesswork on the part of the DM, who should assess the characters' likely courses of action and what dangers they're likely to face. The exact form that an omen of peril takes depends on whether you worship a specific deity, venerate nature as a druid, or simply uphold abstract principles. A druid might see a white dove for safety, a dark cloud obscuring the sun for peril, and a for safety, a crossroads for peril, and a washed-out bridge for great danger. Unlike the more powerful augury spell [PH 202], an omen of peril doesn't respond to a specific question. It indicates only the level of danger likely for the next hour, not what form the danger will take. Focus: A set of marked sticks, bones, or similar tokens worth at least 25 gp.

The protection does not prevent such effects from targeting the protected creature, but it suppresses the effect or the duration of the protection from evil effect. If the protection from evil effect granting mental control does, the would-be controller would then be able to mentally command the controlled creature. Likewise, the barrier keeps out a possessing life force but does not exped one if it is in place before the spell is cast. This second effect works regardless of alignment. Third, the spell prevents bodily contact by summoned creatures. This causes the natural weapon attacks of such creatures to fail and the creature sto recoil if such attacks require touching the warded creature. Good summoned creatures are immune to this effect. The protection against contact by summoned creatures ends if the warded creature makes an attack against or tries to force the barrier against the blocked creature. Spell resistance can allow a creature to overcome this protection and touch the warded creature. Arcane Material Component: A little powdered silver with which you trace a 3-foot -diameter circle on the floor [or ground] around the creature to be warded. [V, S] TARGET: One creature; EFFECT: You ward a creature from attacks by soulmelds and incarnum creatures. The spell forms a barrier at a distance of 1 foot around the warded creature. The barrier is normally invisible, but it flashes electric blue when struck by an incarnum creature's natural weapon attack or an effect generated by a soulmeld. While protected, the subject gains a +2 deflection bonus to Armor Class and a +2 resistance bonus on saves. Both of these bonuses apply only against natural weapon attacks made by incarnum creatures or effects created by soulmelds. A side effect of this spell is that it prevents the subject from gaining essentia, even if such an effect would be considered beneficial. Such effects automatically fail if targeted on the protected subject. [SR:No; see text; DC:16, Will negates (harmless)]

The spell blocks any attempt to possess the warded creature [as by a magic jar attack or certain ghost feats] or to exercise mental control over the creature [as by a vampire's supernatural domination ability, which works similarly to dominate person]. The protection does not prevent a vampire's domination itself, but it prevents the vampire from mentally commanding the protected creature. If the protection from possession effect ends before the domination effect does, the vampire would then be able to mentally command the controlled creature. Likewise, the spell keeps out a possessing life force, but does not expel one if it is in place before the spell is cast. Those not attempting to attack the subject remain unaffected. This spell does not prevent the warded creature from being attacked or affected by area or effect spells. 1 standard action 1 round/level □□□□□Spell Flower

[V,5] TARGET: You; EFFECT: You are able to hold the charge for one touch spell per arm of your body as long as you don't use a changed limb to cast another spell or touch anything with it. Each touch spell you cast resides in a different forelimb. For the duration of this spell, any touch spells you cast are discharged only if you cast another spell with that forelimb or touch something with that forelimb. For example, a human sorcerer casts this spell, then casts child touch and holds the charge in his left hand, then casts shocking grasp and holds the charge in his right hand. Because of the spell flower, he can hold the charge on both of these spells at the same time. If he casts another spell with a somatic component [which requires the use of one of his hands], he immediately loses one of his held touch spells [his choice], but if the spell he casts is also a touch spell, he can immediately hold the charge in the available hand. If he chooses to attack with a touch spell, it works normally. Since he has multiple limbs that are considered armed, he can make an off-hand attack with the other touch spell in the same round, with the normal penalties for fighting with two weapons [PH 160]. A marilith spellcaster could do the same as the sorcerer in the previous example, except that she could hold the charge on up to six touch spells. She could also use any of her spell-like or supernatural abilities, since those do not interfere with holding a charge. If the spell flower effect ends, the most recent touch spell cast remains as a held charge and all other held spells dissipate.

□□□□ Augury (CL:10)

August (CL. 10)

(V, S, M, F) TARGET: You; EFFECT: An augury can tell you whether a particular action will bring good or bad results for you in the immediate future. The base chance for receiving a meaningful reply is 70% + 1% per caster level, to a maximum of 90%; this roll is made secretly. A question may be so straightforward that a successful result is automatic, or so vague as to have no chance of success. If the augury succeeds, you get one of four results: . Weal and woe [for both]. Nothing [for actions that don't have especially good or bad results]. If the spell fails, you get the "nothing" result. A cleric who gets the "nothing" result has no way to tell whether it was the consequence of a failed or successful augury. The augury can see into the future only about half an hour, so anything that might happen after that does not affect the result. Thus, the result might not take into account the long-term consequences of a contemplated action. All auguries cast by the same person about the same dice result as the first casting. Material Component: Incense worth at least 25 gp. Focus: A set of marked sticks, bones, or similar tokens of at least 25 gp value. [SR:No] 1 standard action 1 round/level SC:p.18 □□□□□ Aura Against Flame Abiuration

N.5] TARGET: You, FEFECT: You create an aura of blue mist that protects you against fire, absorbing the first 10 points of fire damage as a resist energy [fire] spell [PH 272]. In addition to the resist energy [fire] effect, the spell can be used to snuff out fires. Any nonmagical flame that the aura contacts is immediately extinguished if the flame's maximum damage is 10 or fewer points per round. This means that torches, small fires, and hurled alchemist's fire are snuffed out and cause no damage if used against you or if you touch them. You can use a standard action to touch an existing magical fire [such as a flaming sphere or a wall of fire] and attempt to dispel it as if using a dispel magic spell against it [use the caster level of aura against flame for the caster level check]. If you succeed, you take no damage from the touch and the magical fire and aura both vanish. If you fail, you take damage from the magical fire source normally [reduced by your aura against flame], and both spells remain. With a readied action, you can use the aura as a dispel magic effect to counterspell a magical fire adainst you. If successful, the spell is counterspelled and the aura disappears. If you fail the dispel check, or if the attack is not a fire attack, the aura remains. □□□□□Avoid Planar Effects Abjuration 1 immediate action 1 minute/level

NJ TARGET: One creature/level in a 20-ft. radius burst centered on you; EFFECT: You gain a temporary respite from the natural effects of a specific plane. These effects include extremes in temperature, lack of air, poisonous fumes, emanations of positive or negative energy, or other attributes of the plane itself [DMG 150]. Avoid planar effects provides protection from the 3d10 points of fire damage that characters normally take when on a plane with the fire-dominant trait. Avoid planar effects allows a character to breathe water on a waterdominant plane and ignore the threat of suffocation on an earth-dominant plane. A character protected by avoid planar effects can't be blinded by the characters protected by avoid planar effects. In addition, some effects specific to a plane are negated by avoid planar effects. In the D&D cosmology, avoid planar effects negates the deafening effect of Pandemonium and the cold damage on the Cania layer of the Nine Hells. The DM can add additional protections for a cosmology he creates. If the campaign has an Elemental Plane of Cold, for example, avoid planar effects of gravity traits, alignment traits, and magic traits are 'n negated by avoid planar effects. In splane. □□□□ Restoration, Lesser Conjuration (Healing) [Water Shugenja] 3 rounds Instantaneous PH:p.272

□□□□□ Rigor Mortis HH:p.132

[S, M] TARGET: Creature touched; EFFECT: This spell allows you to wrap a single target in death's embrace, making him both feel and appear dead for the duration of the spell. You must be able to touch the target, and the target must have a Wisdom score, but otherwise the spell can affect any creature, including intelligent undead. You must succeed on a melee touch attack to affect unwilling targets, and those who fail their saving throws immediately fall to the ground as though dead. All vital functions [if any] are suspended; subjects of this spell do not breathe, pump blood, or otherwise indicate in any way that they still live. Any physical harm done to someone in this state immediately grants another saving throw to awaken from the artificial torpor. Material Component: A pinch of ash from a cremated body of any kind. [SR:Yes; DC:17, Fortitude negates]

Evocation [Sonic] 1 standard action Instantaneous Close (45 ft.) PH:p.278 □□□□□Shatter

(S, M/DS) TARGET: 5-ft.-radius spread; or one solid object or one crystalline creature; EFFECT: Shatter creates a loud, ringing noise that breaks brittle, nonmagical objects; sunders a single solid, nonmagical object; or damages a crystalline creature. Used as an area attack, shatter destroys nonmagical objects of crystal, glass, ceramic, or porcelain. All such objects within a 5-foot radius of the point of origin are smashed into dozens of pieces by the spell. Objects weighing more than 1 pound per your level are not affected, but all other objects of the appropriate composition are shattered. Alternatively, you can target shatter against a single solid object, regardless of composition, weighing up to 10 pounds per caster level. Targeted against a crystalline creature [of any weight], shatter deals 1d6 points of sonic damage per caster level [maximum 10d6], with a Fortitude save for half damage. Arcane Material Component: A chip of mica. [SR:Yes (object); DC:17, Will negates (object); Will negates (object) or Fortitude half; see text]

Shield Other Abjuration

[V, S, F] TARGET: One creature; EFFECT: This spell wards the subject and creates a mystic connection between you and the subject so that some of its wounds are transferred to you. The subject gains a +1 deflection bonus to AC and a +1 resistance bonus on saves. Additionally, the subject takes only half damage from all wounds and attacks [including that dealt by special abilities] that deal hit point damage. The amount of damage not taken by the warded creature is taken by you. Forms of harm that do not involve hit points, such as charm effects, temporary ability damage, level draining, and death effects, are not affected. If the subject not split with you because it is not hit point damage. When the spell ends, subsequent damage is no longer divided between the subject and you, but damage laready split is not reassigned to the subject. If you and the subject of the spell move out of range of each other, the spell ends. Focus: A pair of platinum rings [worth at least 50 gp each] worn by both you and the warded creature. Necromancy 1 standard action 10 minutes/level [D] □□□□□Shroud of Undeath Personal

[V.S.M] TARGET: You, EFFECT: You shroud yourself with invisible negative energy so that nonintelligent undead creatures perceive you as a fellow undead, ignoring you. Your appearance does not change, and while intelligent undead do not immediately recognize you as alive, they are likely to question whether you are actually undead. If used in conjunction with a disguise or illusion to appear undead, this spell gives you a +5 bonus on your Disguise check. When you are affected by this spell, inflict spells heal you and cure spells hurt you. You are treated as if you were undead for the purpose of all spells and effects that specifically affect undead creatures. A successful turning or rebuking attempt against you [treating you as an undead of your hit Dice] ends this spell but does not therwise affect you. If you attack an undead creature while this spell is in effect, the spell immediately ends. Material Component: Dust or bone fragments from any destroyed undead creature.

Illusion (Glamer) [Air Shugenja] 1 standard action 9 minutes [D] Long (760 ft.) □□□□□ Silence

[V, S] TARGET: 20 ft. radius emanation centered on a creature, object, or point in space; EFFECT: Upon the casting of this spell, complete silence prevails in the affected area. All sound is stopped: Conversation is impossible, spells with verbal components cannot be cast, and no noise whatsoever issues from, enters, or passes through the area. The spell can be cast on a point in space, but the effect is stationary unless cast on a mobile object. The spell can be centered on a creature, and the effect then radiates from the creature and moves as it moves. An unwilling creature can attempt a Will save to negate the spell and can use spell resistance, if any. Items in a creature's possession or magic items that emit sound receive the benefits of saves and spell resistance, but unattended objects and points in space do not. This spell provides a defense against sonic or language-based attacks. [SR:Yes; see text or no (object); DC:17, Will negates; see text or none (object)]

1 standard action Instantaneous Transmutation [Earth] □□□□ *Soften Earth and Stone

[V, S, DF] TARGET: 90 ft. square; see text; EFFECT: When this spell is cast, all natural, undressed earth or stone in the spell's area is softened. Wet earth becomes thick mud, dry earth becomes loose sand or dirt, and stone becomes soft clay that is easily molded or chopped. You affect a 10-footsquare area to a depth of 1 to 4 feet, depending on the toughness or resilience of the ground at that spot. Magical, enchanted, dressed, or worked stone cannot be affected. Earth or stone creatures are not affected. A creature in mud must succeed on a Reflex save or be caught for 1 d2 rounds and unable to move, attack, or cast spells. A creature that succeeds on its save can move through the mud at half speed, and it can't run or charge. Loose dirt is not as troublesome as mud, but all creatures in the area can move at only half their normal speed and can't run or charge over the surface. Stone softened into clay does not hinder movement, but it does allow characters to cut, shape, or excavate areas they may not have been able to affect before. While soften earth and stone does not affect dressed or worked stone, cavern cellings or vertical surfaces such as cliff faces can be affected. Usually, this causes a moderate collapse or landslide as the loosened material peels away from the face of the wall or roof and falls. A moderate amount of structural damage can be dealt to a manufactured structure by softening the ground beneath it, causing it to settle. However, most well-built structures will only be damaged by this spell, not destroyed. [SR:No]

Essentia that cannot be reallocated with a swift action [for example, essentia invested in an incarnum feat] cannot be redistributed. Arcane Focus: A musical instrument. [SR:Yes; DC:17, Fortitude partial]

[V,S,DF] TARGET: One creature/level; EFFECT: The subject does not rise as an undead spawn should it perish from an undead's attack that normally would turn it into a spawn, such as from the bite of a ghoul [MM 118]. This spell doesn't prevent the subject from perishing or provide anything other than insurance that the subject's body and spirit cannot be hijacked by an acquisitive undead creature. The protection applies if the duration is still in effect wh the subject first dies; the spell need not linger in its effect during the period immediately prior to a spawn's rise. This spell cannot be cast on the body of a creature that has already been killed by a spawncreating undead. [SR:Yes [harmless]]

The weapon takes the shape of a weapon favored by your deity or a weapon with some spiritual significance or symbolism to you [see below] and has the same threat range and critical multipliers as a real weapon of its form. It strikes the opponent you designate, starting with one attack in the round the spell is cast and continuing each round thereafter on your turn. It uses your base attack bonus [possibly allowing it multiplier as a real weapon in subsequent rounds] plus your Wisdom modifier as its attack bonus. It strikes as a spell, no, for example, it can damage creatures that have damage reduction. As a force effect, it can strike incorporeal creatures without the normal miss chance associated with incorporeality. The weapon always strikes from your direction. A blast of that energy type bursts in all directions from you, dealing 1d8 points of damage +1 point per caster level 20 to nearby creatures other than you. If you are willing to take the damage yourself, you deal twice as much damage. You don't get a Reflex save, but spell resistance applies, as do any resistances and immunities you have to the energy type. For example, a Medium creature would deal an extra 1d6 points of damage against a Large creature, 2d6 against Huge, 3d6 against Gargantuan, or 4d6 against a Colossal creature. □□□□□ Footsteps of the Divine Transmutation 1 standard action 1 round/level [D]

(V, S, DF] TARGET: Your body twists and reshapes itself, allowing you brief freedom from the confines of a wholly humanoid shape. Upon casting this spell, you briefly acquire a new movement.MODe and speed, as given on the table below. Unlike most deity-variable spells, footsteps of the divine does not limit you to the option offered by your own deity; you are free to choose any option presented on the table. If you choose an option offered by a deity other than your own, however, the spell duration is halved. You can choose only one option per casting. Your assumption of a new movement.MODe, if any, imposes certain physical changes on you. For instance, if footsteps of the divine grants you grow wings; if it grants you a burrow speed, you grow heavy digging claws; and so forth. A "-" entry indicates that you gain no new movement type, but your base speed increases by the amount indicated. At any point before the duration expires, you can choose to employ a burst of truly inhuman speed. Doing so adds an additional +10 feet to your speed per round remaining in the spell's duration. However, this effect lasts for only a single round, after which the spell ends.

□□□□□ Fuse Arms Transmutation 1 standard action 10 minutes/level

[V,S] TARGET: Creature with at least two arms or tentacles touched; EFFECT: You cause a creature's multiple arms or tentacles to fuse together into a single pair of stronger limbs. Only limbs that the creature can use as arms or grasping limbs are affected by the spell [50 basilisks and monstrous certipedes, neither of which use their limbs to attack or manipulate objects, are unaffected.] For every set of limbs fused into the primary set of limbs, the creature gains +4 to Strength when using those fused limbs [affecting activities that would use those limbs, but not activities relying on its bite, legs, and so on]. For example, a girallon under the effect of this spell would have one pair of arms and Strength 26 for the purpose of using those arms. A behir, which has three pairs of limbs that it can use as arms, would end end up with one pair of arm-limbs with a +8 bonus to Strength for those arms [its six legs would be unaffected]. The loss of limbs might reduce the number of attacks available to the subject. If the subject has only two arms or tentacles, they are fused into a single limb, and the creature gains a +4 bonus to Strength on attack rolls made with that limb. [S, M/DF] TARGET: Willing corporeal creature touched; EFFECT: The subject and all its gear become insubstantial, misty, and translucent. Its material armor [including natural armor] becomes worthless, though its size, Dexterity, deflection bonuses, and armor bonuses from force effects still apply. The subject gains damage reduction 10/magic and becomes immune to poison and critical hits. It can't attack or cast spells with verbal, somatic, material, or focus components while in gaseous form. [This does not rule out the use of certain spells that the subject may have prepared using the feats Silent Spell, Still Spell, and Eschew Materials.] The subject also loses supernatural abilities while in gaseous form. If it has a touch spell ready to use, that spell is discharged harmlessly when the gaseous form spell takes effect. A gaseous creature can't run, but it can fly at a speed of 10 feet [maneuverability perfect]. It can pass through small holes or narrow openings, even mere cracks, with all it was wearing or holding in its hands, as long as the spell persists. The creature is subject to the effects of wind, and it can't enter water or other liquid. It also can't manipulate objects or activate items, even those carried along with its gaseous form. Continuously active items remain active, though in some cases their effects may be moot. Arcane Material Component: A bit of gauze and a wisp of smoke. [SR:No]

[V,S] TARGET: One weapon or fifty projectiles [all in contact at time of casting]; EFFECT: Ghost touch weapon makes a weapon magically capable of dealing damage normally to incorporeal creatures, regardless of its enhancement bonus. [An incorporeal creature's 50% chance to avoid damage does not apply to attacks made with weapons under the effect of this spell.] A ranged weapon affected by this spell does not bestow the ability on its ammunition. The weapon can be picked up and moved by an incorporeal creature at any time. A manifestive did the weapon against corporeal foes. The creature's original arms [if any] are its primary arms, and new limbs are secondary limbs [if the subject had no arms, the arms created by the spell are its primary arms]. The creature gains four claw attacks, each using its base attack bonus + its Str modifier for attack rolls. Each claw deals 1dd points of damage + the subject's Str modifier, and if an opponent is struck by two or more claws in 1 round, the subject can rend it for an additional 2dd points of damage + 1-1/2 times its Str modifier. A creature cannot use normal weapons and the claw attacks in the same round, and the subject does not gain additional claw attacks from a high base attack bonus. When you cast this spell, it uses one of your turning attempts for the day. If you have a feat or special ability that alters your turning check [such as Empower Turning], you may apply that modifier to the turning or rebuking stored in the glyph. When the glyph is triggered, the turning or rebuking attempt functions as if you were making the turning roll. A successful turning or rebuking attempt causes the undead to flee the glyph. The spell also prevents the use of a gate or teleportation circle for the duration of the spell. [V] TARGET: 10-ft.-radius emanation centered on a creature, object, or point in space; EFFECT: This spell can be cast at a point in space, but the effect is stationary unless cast on a mobile object. The spell can be cast on a creature, and the effect then radiates from the creature and moves as it moves. A creature can attempt a Will save to negate the spell, and spell resistance, if any, applies if the spell is cast on a creature. Divine interdiction interferes with a cleric's connection to her divine source of power, resulting in a temporary loss of the ability to turn or rebuke creatures and loss of granted domain powers. Paladins, blackguards, and other classes capable of rebuking and turning also suffer a temporary loss of this ability. This affects the subject's ability to channel energy through the use of a turn or rebuke attempt, and so also interferes with the use of many divine feats. Any creature moving into the mist, or a creature that begins its turn in the mist must succeed on a Will save or also be dazed for 1 round. The mist filling the area obscures all sight, including darkvision, beyond 5 feet. A creature within 5 feet has concealment. Creatures farther away have total concealment. When you cast the spell, you decide if the effect remains stationary or if its point of origin moves straight away from you at a rate of 10 feet per round. A moderate wind disperses the effect in 4 rounds; a strong wind disperses the mist in 1 round. [SR:Yes; DC:19, Will negates] Dweomer of Transference Evocation 1 minute 9 rounds Close (45 ft.) XPH:PsionicSpells.rtf (V, S) TARGET: One willing psionic creature; EFFECT: With this spell, you form a radiating corona around the head of a psionic ally, then convert some of your spells into psionic power points. When you finish casting dweomer of transference, a red-orange glow surrounds the psionic creature's head. For the duration of the spell, any spells cast at the subject don't have their usual effect, instead converting themselves harmlessly into psionic energy that the subject can use as energy for psionic powers. You can cast any spell you like at the subject, even area spells, effect spells, and spells for whom the subject would ordinarily not be a legitimate target. The spells don't do anything other than provide the subject with power points, but you must still cast them normally, obeying the component and range requirements listed in the description of each spell. For each spell you cast into the dweomer of transference, the psionic creature gets temporary power points, according to the following table. The transference isn't perfectly efficient. The temporary power points acquired through a dweomer of transference dissipate after 1 hour if they haven't already been spent. Range Medium (190 ft.) □□□□□ *Animal Growth (N, S) TARGET: Up to 4 animals [Gargantuan or smaller], no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart; EFFECT: A number of animals grow to twice their normal size and eight times their normal weight. This alteration changes each animals's size category to the next largest, grants it a +8 size bonus to Strength and a +4 size bonus to Constitution [and thus an extra 2 hit points per HD], and imposes a -2 size penalty to Dexterity. The creature's existing natural armor bonus increases by 2. The size change also affects the animal's modifier to AC and attack rolls and its base damage. The animal's space and reach change as appropriate to the new size, but its speed does not change. The spell also grants each subject damage reduction 10/magic and a +4 resistance bonus on saving throws. If insufficient room is available for the desired growth, the creature attains the maximum possible size and may make a 5trength check [using its increased Strength] to burst any enclosures in the process. If it fails, it is constrained without harm by the materials enclosing it: the spell cannot be used to crush a creature by increasing its size. All equipment worn or carried by an animal is sismilarly enlarged by the spell, though this change has no effect on the magical properties of any such equipment. The creature seeking attonement must be truly repentant and desirous of setting right its misdeeds and acts of a knowing and willful nature, you must intercede with your deity [requiring you to expend 500 XP] in order to expunge the subject's burden. Many casters first assign a subject of this sort a quest [see geas/quest] or similar penance to determine whether the creature is truly contrite before casting the attonement spell on its behalf. Atonement may be cast for one of several purposes, depending on the version selected. Reverse Magical Alignment Change: If a creature has had its alignment magically changed, atonement returns its alignment to its original status at no cost in experience points. Restore Class: A paladin who has lost her class features due to committing an evil act may have her paladinhood restored to her by this spell. Restore Cleric or Druid Spell Powers: A cleric or druid who has lost the ability to cast spells by incurring the anger of his or her deity may regain that ability by seeking atonement from another cleric of the same deity or another druid. If the transgression was intentional, he does not lose XP. Redemption or Temptation: You may cast this spell upon a creature of an opposing alignment in order to offer it a chance to change its alignment to match yours. The prospective subject must be present for the entire casting process. Upon completion of the spell, the subject freely chooses whether it retains its original alignment or acquiesces to your offer and changes to your alignment. A rotation causes the winds to circle the center in clockwise or counterclockwise fashion. A blast simply causes the winds to blow in one direction across the entire area from one side to the other. When activated, the mark curses the subject. Typically, you designate some sort of criminal behavior that activates the mark, but you can jick any act you please. The effect of the mark is identical with the effect of bestow curse. Since this spell takes 10 minutes to cast and involves writing or the target, you can cast it only on a creature that is willing or restrained. Like the effect of bestow curse, a mark of justice cannot be dispelled, but it can be removed with a break enchantment, limited wish, miracle, remove curse, or wish spell. Remove curse works only if its caster level is equal to or higher than your mark of justice caster level. These restrictions apply regardless of whether the mark has activated. Your successful touch attack leaves a mystical mark upon the subject. After a number of rounds equal to your divine caster level, the subject is entitled to a Will save. Success ends the spell at that point, but failure renders the mark of sin permanent. Though the mark is invisible, all living creatures can sense its presence and are repulsed by it. Thus, they begin their initial interactions with the subject one step nearer to a hostile attitude than they normally would, unless they already know the subject parsonally. Furthermore, the subject takes a -10 circumstance penalty on all Diplomacy checks designed to change the attitudes of others. [See Diplomacy, PH 71.] In addition, the subject takes a -4 penalty to a specific ability score based on your delivery, as given in the table for the divine retribution spell [page 119]. This penalty cannot be removed in any way as long as the mark of sin remains. If you do not worship a deity, you must choose one whose alignment is within one step of your own when you cast this spell for the first time. This choice is for the purpose of this effect only, and you cannot swequently change it unless your alignments shifts in such a way that your previous choice is no longer applicable. A mark of sin cannot be dispelled, but it can be removed with a break enchantment, limited wish, miracle, remove curse, or wish spell. Remove curse works only if its caster level is equal to or higher than that of the mark of 5in. (V, S, M) TARGET: 1 gem/3 caster levels; EFFECT: You cast this spell upon one or more gems, imbuing them with healing energy. The gems leap from your hand, fly to the target, and begin orbiting the target's head like ioun stones. Each warding gem is a receptacle that holds 10 hp. The target cannot choose to absorb only a portion of a warding gem healing power. A warding gem depleted of its healing energy instantly turns to dust.
